Warden Cunningham,

The first official Canadian photo portrait of His Majesty King Charles III was taken in June 2024 in the White Drawing Room of Buckingham Palace. The Protocol & Honours Secretariat have now received copies of the portrait from the Department of Canadian Heritage to distribute to offices and organizations throughout Nova Scotia.

For informational purposes I share from the Government of Canada that on a ribbon around his neck, His Majesty The King is wearing the insignia as a Companion of the Order of Canada, which he received as Prince of Wales from then-Governor General David Johnston in 2017. On the left breast of his jacket, The King is also wearing a bar of medals from Canada, New Zealand and the United Kingdom.

I have enclosed two copies of the portrait however should you require additional copies or have any questions please feel free to contact me at julie.langille@novascotia.ca (902-399-4064).

With all kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Julie Langille".
